Fishing in Canada's Yukon Territory

Lodge Facts

Inconnu Lodge is located one hundred and eighty miles east of Whitehorse in Canada's Yukon Territory. Situated on the north shore of McEvoy Lake, the lodge is forty miles west of the Northwest Territories – Yukon border and one hundred twenty five miles north of the British Columbia – Yukon border.

Activities

Inconnu Lodge offers its clients some of the finest fishing in Canada's north. We utilize a variety of lakes and streams to give our guests a diverse fishing adventure. Each day guests, along with their guide, fly out via our Dehavilland Beaver. We fish for Lake Trout, Northern Pike, Arctic Grayling, Inconnu or Shee Fish and Bull Trout.

Your Journey To Reach Us

This ultimate destination is in the heart of the Yukon Territory, so you would begin your adventure by flying into Vancouver, British Columbia or Calgary Alberta. From there, hop on Air North, Air Canada or WestJet, nonstop to Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, Canada. The hotel we utilize provides a shuttle service to and from the airport. You will then spend an evening in Whitehorse and the following morning our representative will pick you up at the hotel for the flight out to Inconnu Lodge.

With everything to see and do at Inconnu Lodge, the combinations are endless. Just be prepared, because the food will amaze you, the scenery will spellbound you and the air will revitalize you, this is a fishing adventure of a lifetime.
